

THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG, FEBRUARY 6, 1850.

An old fellow being visited by his pastor, he assured him he could not be a good Christian unless he took up his daily cross, whereupon he took up his wife and began dragging her about the room.

"Mother, what did father pray to General Grant so much in church for yesterday?" asked the bright little daughter of a ministerial friend lately. "I don't know that he did, sis." "Why, yes; don't you know?" He was always saying, "Grant, we be-saw all the time."

AN APOLOGY.—A miller had his neighbor arrested upon the charge of stealing wheat from his mill, but being unable to prove the charge, the court adjudged that the plaintiff should apologize to the accused. "Well," said he, "I've had you arrested for stealing my wheat. I can't prove it, and I am sorry for it."

A well-known young lawyer obtained divorce for a pretty and wealthy client. He sent in a bill for $1000.—The next day the lady called on him, and inquired if he was in earnest in proposing to her. "I propose to you, Madam! I didn't propose to you," replied the astonished attorney. "Well, you asked for my fortune, and I thought you would have the grace to take me with it," was the calm reply. The lawyer wailed.

An Irishman was charged with highway robbery. In the course of the trial the prisoner roared out from the dock that he was guilty, but the jury pronounced him by their verdict "not guilty." The astonished judge exclaimed: "Good Heavens, gentlemen! did you not hear the man declare himself that he was guilty?" The foreman said: "We did, my lord, and that was the very reason we acquitted him, for we know the fellow to be no notorious a traitor than he never told a word of truth in his life."
